MOST REVEREND MICHAEL F. BURBIDGE BISHOP OF ARLINGTON

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

It is with great joy the Ball Committee and I welcome you to the 40th Catholic Charities Ball! The selected theme this year, Remembering the Past with Gratitude, echoes the theme of our Diocese's first preparatory year, Remember, for our Golden Jubilee celebration in 2024, where we reflect on Our Lord's real presence in the Eucharist and his abundant blessings upon our Diocese throughout the years.

Our Lord calls us to be instruments of his mercy and love, and you respond to that call year after year. For over four decades, the Catholic Charities Ball has raised essential funds that aid the vulnerable with rent assistance, food and medical care, mental health counseling, job placement, newcomer services and more. As your bishop, I am deeply grateful.

With your steadfast generosity, as well as the collaboration of parishes, schools and other community partners, Catholic Charities will continue daily to serve our brothers and sisters in need. In his words, "Do this in remembrance of me," may Our Lord continue to bless those we serve and those who enable us to do this work, and may he inspire widespread, generous support.

Thank you for your fidelity to Christ, which is reflected through your commitment to the mission of Catholic Charities of the Diocese of Arlington. Always be assured of my prayers for you and your family.

Sincerely in Christ,

Most Reverend Michael F. Burbidge
Bishop of Arlington

LETTER FROM THE BALL CHAIRS

GOOD EVENING AND WELCOME TO THE 2022 CATHOLIC CHARITIES BALL!

Thank you all who join us tonight, in person and in spirit. We are grateful for each of you and blessed to be together to support Catholic Charities in its mission to renew hope and serve the most vulnerable in our Diocese.

This year, on the Ruby Anniversary of the Catholic Charities Ball, we gather with gratitude and remember the impact and contributions over the last 40 years. In preparation for this year's celebration, we recall the words of one of the youngest members of our Diocese, who eloquently reminds us of the heart and soul of our charitable mission: "Charity is grace, from God. It's how He helps you to help people."

So, in that spirit, we are grateful for God's grace and the ways He has empowered you to share His many gifts with your neighbor.

We are blessed to have as our host this evening the Most Reverend Michael F. Burbidge, Bishop of Arlington. We extend special thanks to our Honorary Co-Chairs, Kevin, Danny, Chris and Ted Keany for their continued leadership and support of Catholic Charities, and our Special Gifts Co-Chairs, Alan Holmer and Kelly McGinn, for their extraordinary efforts to raise funds necessary to serve the growing needs of our most vulnerable neighbors.

Lastly, thank you to our committee members who, year after year, joyfully and generously share their time, talent, and experience. We are grateful for the opportunity to celebrate this legacy with you as we build the hope of tomorrow!

We raise our glass with gratitude,

Vicki Scheer Foster

Karen Kenny Skinner

LETTER FROM THE SPECIAL GIFTS CHAIRS

WELCOME TO THE 2022 CATHOLIC CHARITIES BALL!

We are very excited to be gathering again in person this evening to celebrate the 40th Anniversary of the Ball.

As the Special Gifts Chairs, we want to thank our incredible team of volunteers who have dedicated their time, talent, and treasure to Catholic Charities and the Ball year after year. Your devotion to Catholic Charities makes this evening one of the most important and impactful events of the year.

The great works of Catholic Charities is only possible with the participation and generosity of volunteers, individuals, families, parishes, schools and companies. The theme of this evening's Ball is Remembering the Past with Gratitude, and as we look back not only on this challenging past year, but also on the 40 years since the Ball began, we are truly grateful for the ways that Catholic Charities has grown and expanded its ministries to serve the thousands of those in need who turn to us each year.

Thank you for joining us and we hope that you enjoy this beautiful and elegant evening. Please know that your attendance contributes greatly to the vital work of Catholic Charities.

Peace and Blessings,

Kelly Alan

OUR HONORARY BALL CHAIRS

KEANY PRODUCE & GOURMET

The Keany Family is delighted to be the Honorary Ball Chairs for the 40th Annual Catholic Charities Ball. Kevin, Danny, Chris, Ted, and their four other siblings moved from Arizona to Washington, DC in 1962, and have been deeply rooted in the Diocese of Arlington since they moved to Alexandria in 1968. Kevin attended St. John's College High School (1972), and Danny (1974), Chris (1975), and Ted (1977) graduated from Bishop Ireton High School.

In 1978, Kevin Keany started the Keany Produce Company with a single small warehouse in Washington, DC. As the business grew, Kevin's brothers, Chris, Danny, and Ted, joined in the effort while their father, Patrick, continued his support. Over the past 40 years, Keany Produce & Gourmet has built a strong reputation across the mid-Atlantic region for providing customers with personal service and for delivering the finest quality produce at a reasonable price. Today, Keany Produce & Gourmet is still a family-owned business with each of the brothers taking an active role in the day-to-day operations and overall future company planning. There are six next-generation family members involved in the business, all of whom attended Catholic schools in the area. Additionally, a number of upper management are alumni of local Catholic schools.

The Keany Family has made it a core part of the business to give back to their community. Each week, Danny Keany provides fresh produce to the Little Sisters of the Poor. The company also donates fresh produce to local food hubs and kitchens – SOME, Martha's Table, The Father McKenna Center, and DC Central Kitchen. During the pandemic, Keany's Curbside Pay-It-Forward fundraiser amassed over $100,000 worth of donations to provide fresh produce to the St. Lucy Project. Keany continually supports Catholic Charities, St. Mary's Basilica (Phoenix, Arizona), and PRS, Inc.

"We are grateful to be just a small factor in the outpouring of advocacy and support Catholic Charities provides to our greater community. We are humbled by their designation to us as Honorary Ball Chairs"

– TED KEANY

THE LEGACY AWARDS
2022

THE JAMES J. MATTHEWS LEGACY AWARD

JENNIE LEE TRAPASSO

It is with great pleasure that Catholic Charities of the Diocese of Arlington presents the 2022 James J. Matthews Legacy Award to Jennie Lee Trapasso.

The James J. Matthews Award was established on the 25th Anniversary of the Catholic Charities Ball. Mr. Matthews furnished the vision for the Ball and had the drive and determination to turn his idea into a reality. This Award honors his memory by recognizing individuals who embody Mr. Matthews' spirit and enduring commitment to Catholic Charities. Jennie Lee Trapasso was such an individual.

Jennie Lee passed away on December 21, 2021, after living with cancer for four years. Prior to her passing, she was informed that she was to be a 2022 Award recipient. She was thrilled, honored and humbled to be recognized for her years of service to Catholic Charities. Jennie and her late husband, Victor G. Trapasso, were members of the original Catholic Charities Ball Committee with Mr. Matthews and others. Jennie shared that their introduction to Catholic Charities and the support received from the agency enabled them to adopt their children, Michael and Laura, now Laura Adler.

Jennie Lee was born in Detroit, MI in 1936 to John W. and Jennie Gibson. She came to Northern Virginia with her family when she was 11 years old. She attended Washington-Lee High School and earned a BBA from the University of Michigan in 1958. She worked as secretary-treasurer and later CEO for the family real estate business and as an administrator for a local tax preparer.

Jennie volunteered for many charitable organizations and also served as an elections officer for the City of Alexandria. She served on the board of the Alexandria Hospital and, later, INOVA Hospital System. She was active with St. Stephen and St. Agnes Schools.

In 1989, Jennie chaired the Catholic Charities Ball with Ann Guiffre, also of Alexandria. The following year she became the Treasurer for the Ball until 2006. She was passionate about her service to Catholic Charities. Jennie was a person who brought great joy to all she met. She was known for her sparkling personality and brought a smile to everyone.

Jennie embodied the spirit of giving with her generosity of time, talent and treasure. Catholic Charities of the Diocese of Arlington is proud to present The James J. Matthews Legacy Award posthumously to Jennie Lee Trapasso.

THE JAMES J. MATTHEWS LEGACY AWARD

MARY JOE BARRAZOTTO

It is with great pleasure that Catholic Charities of the Diocese of Arlington presents the 2022 James J. Matthews Legacy Award to Mary Joe Barrazotto.

The Matthews Legacy Award was established on the 25th Anniversary of the Catholic Charities Ball. Mr. Matthews supplied not only the vision for the Ball, but also the drive and determination to make the event a reality. This Award honors his memory by recognizing individuals who embody Mr. Matthews' spirit and everlasting commitment.

Since the beginning of the Ball's existence, Mary Joe Barrazotto has been involved in leadership roles in her church, community, business and family. She was born in Arlington, VA on November 19, 1940 to Charles and Virginia Radigan. She was the only daughter with three brothers—Mac, Tom and Bill.

Mary Joe went to school in Arlington, starting in St. Agnes in 4th grade and then attended Marymount High School. She participated in the Catholic Youth program at St. Agnes where she was recognized, "from the pulpit," for her participation.

After marrying Richard Barrazotto in 1959, Mary Joe raised four children, Richard Jr., Mary, Matthew and John. She is now the proud grandmother of nine grandchildren and has four great-grandchildren.

While raising four children was a full-time job, Mary Joe was an active member of the Service League of Northern Virginia, holding various officer roles and chairing numerous fundraisers such as the Tiara Ball. She volunteered at St. Agnes School where her three sons attended elementary school.

After her children were in high school, Mary Joe began working full time at the family business, Clements Pastry Shop. She ran the office for more than 30 years, keeping a firm handle on her three sons as they took over management of the business from their dad.

While working full time, Mary Joe continued to support various non-profit organizations. As a proud supporter of Catholic Charities, Mary Joe served on several Catholic Charities Ball Committees before working closely with Dee Estes to chair the Ball in 1994. Since then, she has been a long-standing member of the advisory board and she and Richard contribute annually to the Ball to support its various programs to help those in need. Currently, Mary Joe proudly supports Missionhurst, including working with others to decorate the altar with fresh flowers and plants. She and Richard attend Mass at Missionhurst every Sunday.

Throughout her life, Mary Joe has more than exemplified the spirit of the Matthews Award with faith, grace and dignity. Catholic Charities of the Diocese of Arlington is proud to present The James J. Matthews Legacy Award to Mary Joe Barrazotto.

BISHOP PAUL STEPHEN LOVERDE LEGACY AWARD

CHRIST THE REDEEMER CATHOLIC CHURCH

Each year, the Bishop Paul S. Loverde Legacy Award honors a person, parish, or organization within our diocese that has demonstrated an extraordinary commitment to serving the poor through its commitment to and support of Catholic Charities of the Diocese of Arlington. Catholic Charities is pleased to present this year's award to Christ the Redeemer Catholic Church, Sterling.

Christ the Redeemer, a multicultural and multilingual parish that is home to 11,700 parishioners, this year celebrates the 50th anniversary of its founding. The parish has a deep commitment to sharing the love of Christ and meeting the needs of its neighbors through compassion and charity.

Under the leadership of Father Jaffe, Christ the Redeemer has been tireless in its efforts to tend to the needs of the local community, regardless of whether or not they are parishioners of Christ the Redeemer. Over the past 18 months Christ the Redeemer has provided an astounding $800,000 in emergency assistance to families affected by COVID-19 to ensure they could remain in their homes, provide for their children, and get back to work. The parish worked closely with Catholic Charities to refer families who could benefit from COVID-19 relief monies, including CARES Act funds. The parish also provided for families who did not qualify for this funding. Fr. Jaffe tirelessly sought out private foundation grants, appealed to the parish for contributions, and found major donors who were willing to provide matching gifts in order to help as many vulnerable households as possible.

Christ the Redeemer has been a great collaborator with Catholic Charities, which maintains a permanent office at the parish, currently used by the Office of Newcomer Services. As a strong advocate for the poor, Fr. Jaffe frequently shares with his parishioners the work of Catholic Charities, inviting their support of the ministry. In 2019 his parish hosted Catholic Charities and welcomed Bishop Michael Burbidge who celebrated a special World Day of the Poor Mass. This Catholic Charities event included a winter coat collection to benefit the rural poor served by Catholic Charities' Mercy (Mobile Response Center) Van. This past autumn, Christ the Redeemer opened its facilities to Catholic Charities staff for its first daylong all-staff gathering since the onset of the pandemic.

For their unwavering commitment to serving the poor and partnering with Catholic Charities, we are honored to present this award to Father Jaffe and Christ the Redeemer.

CATHOLIC CHARITIES BALL HISTORY 2022

This evening, the Catholic Charities of the Diocese of Arlington is celebrating the 40th Ball—Remembering the Past with Gratitude in which we celebrate past accomplishments and look forward to continued success in providing our support to Catholic Charities programs. This organization has been working towards meeting the needs of the marginalized and underserved for the past 74 years.

This year we welcome Vicki Foster and Karen Skinner as this year's Ball Chairs. We are forever thankful to all of those who have served before us and those to come who continue to volunteer year after year to join the Ball Committee in its endeavor to create this beautiful evening for all to enjoy and especially to raise funding to benefit those who most need our support in the Arlington Diocese. Catholic Charities is especially grateful for all you do to help them in their mission but those most grateful hearts are those who are uplifted due to your generosity.

The Catholic Charities Ball was created in 1981 when James J. Matthews initiated the concept of a ball to raise funding from the private sector to ensure Catholic Charities could continue to meet the expanding needs of its programs. Bishop Welsh embraced the idea and the plans for the first Catholic Charities Ball began to take shape. The purpose of a Ball was twofold: to generate needed revenue for Catholic Charities programs and to foster fellowship and a spirit of unity as a caring Catholic community. The first Ball was held on June 11, 1982. The Special Gifts Committee was created to secure large contributions from individuals, professionals and corporations. This year we are pleased to have the wonderful team of Alan Holmer and Kelly McGinn as our Special Gifts Chairs. With them, we know this year's Ball will be truly successful. We are also very honored to have Keany Produce and Gourmet (Kevin, Danny, Chris and Ted Keany) as this year's Honorary Ball Chairs.

The Ball has come a long way since its inception, from the initial Ball's attendance of over 400 guests to often hosting 1,000 guests – this due to the combined efforts of the volunteers of the Ball Committee, the Special Gifts Committee, and the Advisory Committee. One of the largest ballrooms in the area is filled to capacity year after year with generous individuals who want to make a difference in the lives of the less fortunate.

Last year due to the COVID pandemic, there was no way to conduct an in-person Ball. Therefore, Catholic Charities and the Ball Leadership invited people to support their neighbors in need and view "By the Grace of God" A Video of Generosity and Service which premiered in lieu of the traditional Ball on February 5, 2021. We are pleased to say that last year through all of your generosity under such unusual circumstances, we raised $1.1M; and since its inception, the Ball has raised over $19.3M. The enthusiasm of all who participate in this worthwhile endeavor creates a sense of community and pride in our diocese.

Building a Legacy of Faith

Accomplish your charitable goals through an Endowment or Donor Advised Fund (DAF)

A Named Endowment: The principal is held in perpetuity while earnings provide for charities. Some existing funds include:

- Basilica of St. Mary Dedicated Tuition Fund
- Seminarian Education Endowment Fund (SEEF)
- The Ruth and Hal Launders/St. Joseph's School Fund

A Donor Advised Fund simplifies charitable giving. A private foundation can be expensive while a DAF provides cost savings and tax advantages. For 2020-2021, the Foundation had 30 grant distributions totaling $237,090.

- Through their Faith and Works in Action Donor Advised Fund, Joseph and Ann Guiffre have supported the Basilica School of Saint Mary's Mater Dei Program and Classroom with a challenge grant.
- The school, like several diocesan schools, is committed to offering Catholic education to children on the full spectrum of educational needs. This DAF grant is inspiring Basilica of Saint Mary parishioners to support this critical program.
